

Downtown Transportation Options

There are lots of great ways to get around downtown Boise. With the help of a City Go membership, it gets even better. Enjoy exclusive benefits and discounts on the options that work best for you.

Bus

Kick back and let someone else do the driving with Valley Regional Transit bus service. You'll find convenient routes that extend throughout the Treasure Valley.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/boise-bus>

Bike

If you need to get somewhere faster than your feet will carry you, take a bike. Let us help you find the best routes and where to securely park your bike.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/boise-bike>

Vanpool

Vanpools are a fleet of vans tricked out for your commuting pleasure featuring climate-controlled bliss and comfortable seats. You'll ride in groups of 11-13 commuters who share a similar commuting route and schedule.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/boise-vanpool>

Carpool

Sharing the ride lightens the load on our roads. It's a great way to reduce traffic, save money on parking, and make some new friends. You can carpool with co-workers, or, visit ShareTheRideIdaho to connect with people who share similar commutes, schedules, and office location.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/carpool-services>

Downtown Transportation Options

Walking

If you live in downtown Boise, walking is a great way to ease into your workday, get around downtown, and the perfect way to unwind when it's quitting time. Aside from investing in some comfortable walking shoes, it's practically free.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/walking-downtown-boise>

Rideshare

When your work schedule isn't 9 to 5, you need a ride to your bus stop, or you just don't feel like driving, rideshare programs can take you there. They give you the flexibility of a vehicle without the limitations of a fixed route or limited schedule hours.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/rideshare-programs>

Scooter

You'll find scooters in Boise on just about every corner. They're convenient, environmentally friendly and fun to ride. Riding a scooter can help fill in the gaps between the bus or vanpool and parking them is a breeze.

Find out more at <https://www.citygoboise.com/scooters-in-boise>